of Rs.72,822/-. The certificate further confirms that the company had already paid the office maintenance expenses of Rs.32,462/-, miscellaneous expenses of Rs.38,523/-, printing and stationery expenses of Rs.11,732/-, the traveling and conveyance expenses of Rs.31,712/- by cash and had also cleared the salaries and audit fees payable as on that date through cheques. The details of the payment of salaries and audit fees are furnished in a separate confirmation letter dated 20.06.2012. M/s.Northward Projects Private Limited, the landlord of the petitioner company furnished letter dated 19.06.2012 confirming that the petitioner company was due to pay Rs.80,000/- towards four months arrears of rent and that, having gone through the proposed scheme of arrangement, it gave its consent thereto. It further stated that it had no objection for the restructuring of the petitioner company and agreed to abide by the approvals granted by this Court. This letter is supported by the Resolution dated 11.06.2012 passed by the Board of Directors of the said company 'authorizing the Director to furnish such a consent letter.

The company petition was admitted by this Court on 29.08.2012 and notice of the proposed hearing of this petition on 10.10.2012 was directed to be advertised in the Hyderabad editions of Business Standard (English Daily) and Andhra Bhoomi (Telugu daily). Notice was also issued to the Central Government as required by Section 394-A of the Act of 1956.

The advertisement of the petition having been carried out, it is stated that no objections were received. No shareholder/creditor of the petitioner company has come before this Court opposing the scheme. The Regional Director, South Eastern Region, Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Hyderabad, filed affidavit dated 09.10.2012 stating that as per the report dated 28.09.2012 of the Registrar of Companies, Andhra Pradesh, the petitioner company is regular in filing its statutory returns and no complaints, investigations or inspections are pending against it. He further stated upon examining the scheme, it had been decided not to make any objection thereto.

As the petitioner company is a listed public company on the Bombay Stock Exchange, it obtained letter dated 14.06.2012 from the Bombay Stock Exchange, whereunder it was conveyed that the Stock Exchange had no objection to the proposed scheme with limited reference to those matters having bearing on the listing of the petitioner company within the provisions of the listing agreement. The Stock Exchange however advised the petitioner company to bring the contents of the said letter to the notice of its shareholders, relevant authorities and also in its application to this Court for approval of the scheme.

Prior to filing this petition, the petitioner company filed Company Application No.778 of 2012 before this Court for the purpose of convening a meeting of its equity shareholders for considering the proposed scheme of arrangement. By order dated 28.06.2012, this Court appointed Ms.K.Pallavi, Advocate, as the Chairperson for the meeting to be held on 07.08.2012 in accordance with the directions issued by this Court vide the said order. Having held the said meeting, the Chairperson filed report dated 09.08.2012 stating that the meeting was attended by 30 of the members of the petitioner company in person holding shares of the value of Rs.12,98,562/- divided into 6,49,281 equity shares of Rs.2/- each and 9 members, through proxies, holding shares of Rs.95,52,236/- divided into 47,76,118 equity shares of Rs.2/- each. Put together, the value of the share holding represented at the said meeting was Rs.1,08,50,798/- divided into 54,25,399 equity shares of Rs.2/- each. Only one shareholder, holding shares of the value of Rs.2,000/- comprising 1,000 equity shares of Rs.2/- each, voted against the proposed scheme of arrangement and the vote of one shareholder, having 300 shares of the value of Rs.600/-, was found to be invalid. Thus, the required majority as per Section 391(2) of the Act of 1956 voted in favour of the scheme.

Clause 56(a) of the Articles of Association of the petitioner company authorizes it, by a special resolution, to reduce its capital by paying of capital or cancelling capital which has been lost or is under represented by available assets or by reducing the liability on the shares or otherwise as it may seem expedient.

The scheme of arrangement which involves such reduction would necessarily have to abide by the requirements prescribed by Sections 100 to 105 of the Act of 1956 and Rules 46 to 65 of the Companies (Court) Rules, 1959.

In the light of the law laid down by this Court in NOVOPAN INDIA LIMITED, In re. (A.P.), G.V.K. HOTELS LTD., In re.¹; SUMITRA PHARMACEUTICALS AND CHEMICALS LTD., In re.(A.P.)²; RAASI CEMENT LTD., In re. (A.P.)³; setting out the intention to move a resolution as a special resolution in the notice to the shareholders is not a mandatory requirement. Failure to comply with this requirement would therefore not invalidate the resolution. As long as the shareholders were put on notice of the proposed reduction of share capital through the scheme of arrangement which was the subject matter for consideration at the meeting and the same had been read over and explained to the shareholders who were present during the said meeting, there is substantial compliance with Rule 85 of the Companies (Court) Rules, 1959. However, the majority in numbers, as required by Section 189(2) of the Act of 1956, for the passing of a special resolution would have to be satisfied.

³ (1999) 98 Company Cases 835

In the present case, the meeting of the shareholders convened pursuant to the order of this Court was attended by 39 members representing the share value of Rs.1,08,50,798/- and only one member representing the share value of Rs.2,000/- voted against the scheme. Therefore, the required majority for passing a special resolution was more than adequately fulfilled.

Perusal of the scheme reflects that as the petitioner company was in losses for the past five years with accumulated losses of Rs.12,92,07,766/- as on 31.03.2012 and as there was complete erosion of its net worth, it was not in a position to undertake operations in a reasonable way. It therefore proposed to undertake the restructuring exercise by setting off the loss of Rs.11,22,60,600/- out of the total accumulated losses of Rs.12,92,07,766/- against its paid up share capital of Rs.12,47,34,000/-, resulting in the reduction of Rs.11,22,60,600/- from its paid up capital. Thereby, the issued, subscribed and paid up capital of the company was sought to be brought down to Rs.1,24,73,400/- divided into 6,23,67,000 equity shares of Rs.0.20 paise each. The issued, subscribed and paid up share capital of
